

City of Fredericksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., August 27.—A dance was given one night this week at Convention Hall. Among the dancers were: Miss Green, of Prince William; Miss B. Smith, of Beryl Barber, Kate Newell Dorsett, Grace Mitchell, Amelia Woods, Susie Hales, Lena Rowe, May Rowe, Mary Lindsay, Nora Goulick, and Messrs. Wilcox Sam Reed, Eustace Moncur, C. O'Connor, George, F. L. W. Green, Harrison Montgomery, Jack Barber, of Pittsburg; T. S. Farr, and Harrison Carr.

Miss Nannie Willis has returned from a visit to friends in Charlottesville. Judge and Mrs. A. T. Embrey and daughter have returned from Atlantic City.

Misses Ella and Rebecca Stringfellow, of Montgomery, Ala., are visiting Mrs. J. S. Bradley.

Miss Julia Mossick has returned to her home at Irvington, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. C. Rowe.

Miss Bessie Crismond has returned from a visit to friends in Orange.

Miss Isabelle Williams, of North Carolina, has been the guest of Miss Margaret Crismond this week.

Mr. W. H. Richards, Jr., is at Atlantic City.

Mrs. F. T. Newman has returned from a visit to Orange county.

Miss Lucilla Yates is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. George W. Shepherd, Jr., is sojourning at Waynesboro.

Mrs. Lucy Gaines Brown and three daughters, of Calvert, Tex., are visiting Mayor M. G. Willis and family.

Mr. Robert Curtis and son, of Corcoran, Tex., were guests this week of Mr. S. G. Daniel.

Mr. Robert Gehringer and Miss Stella Gehringer, of Philadelphia, are visiting Councilman W. L. Watson and family.

Mr. St. George R. Fitzhugh has gone to Buffalo Lithia Springs, for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. W. D. Carter and two children are visiting friends in Tappahannock.

Miss Kate N. Doggett has returned from a visit to Chase City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mills have returned from an extended stay at Irvington.

Councilman E. W. Mills is visiting friends in Caroline county.

Miss Edna C. Lee is visiting friends in Martinsburg, W. Va.

Mrs. A. W. Embrey and children have returned from Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Hayes, of Washington, were here this week, the guests of Mr. A. B. Bowering, Mrs. Hayes' father.

Mrs. W. F. Coates has returned home, after a visit of several months South.

Mr. Lucy P. Doggett and Mr. Heister Doggett, of Chicago, are visiting relatives here.

Mr. A. P. Dickson has returned from Dinwiddie county.

Miss C. Bruce Goulick has returned from Virginia Beach.

Miss Jennie Williams is home again, after spending some time at Rehoboth Beach, Del.

One of the most delightful card parties of the season was given Tuesday by Miss Mattie and Evelyn Shreckels, at their home in this city. The parlors and the beautiful portico were filled with the merry players. Drive whilst was the game of the evening in which Mrs. W. J.

Miss Annabelle Jenkins Powell, of Emporia, appointed sponsor from the Fourth District to the Grand Camp.

Miss Powell is the second daughter of Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Powell and Mrs. W. M. Powell, who reside in Emporia.

She is a most charming and accomplished young lady, and is a great favorite throughout Southside Virginia.

Triggs captured the first prize, and Miss Bessie W. Hamilton the second. After the game refreshments were served. The salad was served in cucumber boats with nasturtiums making ornamental salts. Those present were: Messdames T. T. Fauterley, C. Clay Miller, Glasgow Armstrong, C. A. Henkel, Robert Blackford, C. C. Wheat, E. M. Lorraine, F. Allen, Harry Woodward, of Richmond; C. P. Stiers, Julia Wile, Heber Jer, Miss Helen Baxter, Mary West, Bessie Baker, Emma Hope, Mamie Grady, Rose Harrison, Eugene Bumgardner, Margaret Timberlake, Rose, H. Helen Hutchison, Emily Moore, Sarah Boykin, Mamie Allen, Kate Hutchison, Annie Woodward, Margaret Cochran, Lizzie Jones, Gladys Frazier, Edna Moore, Elizabeth Horner, Mabel Little, May Ranson, Daisy Yarbrough, and Eliza Wheat, of Staunton, and Margaret Childrey, of Richmond.

Fans, Cora K. Stanton and Mr. Melville V. Dix, both of Albemarle county, came here Wednesday evening and were united in marriage at the Palmer House by the Rev. W. N. Scott.

The Home Mission Committee of the Lexington Presbyterian held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. here this week. Dr. Huffman, having resigned as supply of the Elkton church, Elder Gordon brought a request that the committee unite with the church in securing the pastorate.

DAMONDS IN DEMAND.
E. W. EVANS & CO., commission merchants on Cary Street, are anxious for all the diamonds they can get to fill their regular fall orders. They are getting $1.50 to $1.75 per carat for all they can get when in good condition.

MISS MARY VERSER GRAVELY, of Danville, Maid of Honor from the Fifth District to the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans at Lynchburg.

MISS VIRGINIA ALICE HALE, Sponsor from Franklin county to the Grand Camp.

SOCIAL IN GLOUCESTER.

CHATHAM SOCIAL.

MISS KATHERINE STRONACH, Raleigh, N. C.

MISS ELIZABETH MAI GERHART, one of Tennessee's fairest daughters, who has graced South Boston with her beauty and charms this summer, has fallen a victim to the deadly arrow of Cupid, and will never return to sunny Tennessee again as Miss Gerhart, having given her heart and hand to Mr. Charles Thomas Yancey, of that place. The wedding has been announced to take place on the 14th of next month.

there in future. Colonel Miller's family has an important place in the business and social life of the town and were exceedingly popular. Their departure from Radford is deeply regretted.

Miss Melita Dillon is visiting friends in Tazewell.

Rev. C. W. Wysox, of Washington, passed through Radford Sunday en route to his home near Newbern. He spent two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logree Wysox.

Mrs. Samuel Sutcliffe left Tuesday for New Haven, Conn., to visit her husband's sister and will sail a week later for England, where she will spend the fall and winter. She was accompanied by her son, George.

Mrs. L. M. Venable will move in about two weeks to Washington City in order to be with her son, Paymaster George Venable, U. S. N. Miss Gertrude Venable will remain in Radford for the winter in order to fill her position as music teacher at Wadsworth school. The family will be much missed in social circles.

"A little fire is quickly trodden out, which being suffered, rivers cannot quench." If your business shows a tendency to "drag behind," a little renewed vigor in advertising will set it right—but the thing must be done quickly, or "rivers of ink" cannot repair the damage. Tee-Dee Want Ads. are full of vigor.

Every day in the Tee-Dee Want Ad columns "the tide which leads on to fortune" for someone "is at its flood." It may be your turn today.

MISS ANNABELLE JENKINS POWELL, of Emporia, appointed sponsor from the Fourth District to the Grand Camp.

MISS POWELL is the second daughter of Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Powell and Mrs. W. M. Powell, who reside in Emporia.

She is a most charming and accomplished young lady, and is a great favorite throughout Southside Virginia.

Triggs captured the first prize, and Miss Bessie W. Hamilton the second. After the game refreshments were served. The salad was served in cucumber boats with nasturtiums making ornamental salts. Those present were: Messdames T. T. Fauterley, C. Clay Miller, Glasgow Armstrong, C. A. Henkel, Robert Blackford, C. C. Wheat, E. M. Lorraine, F. Allen, Harry Woodward, of Richmond; C. P. Stiers, Julia Wile, Heber Jer, Miss Helen Baxter, Mary West, Bessie Baker, Emma Hope, Mamie Grady, Rose Harrison, Eugene Bumgardner, Margaret Timberlake, Rose, H. Helen Hutchison, Emily Moore, Sarah Boykin, Mamie Allen, Kate Hutchison, Annie Woodward, Margaret Cochran, Lizzie Jones, Gladys Frazier, Edna Moore, Elizabeth Horner, Mabel Little, May Ranson, Daisy Yarbrough, and Eliza Wheat, of Staunton, and Margaret Childrey, of Richmond.

Fans, Cora K. Stanton and Mr. Melville V. Dix, both of Albemarle county, came here Wednesday evening and were united in marriage at the Palmer House by the Rev. W. N. Scott.

The Home Mission Committee of the Lexington Presbyterian held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. here this week. Dr. Huffman, having resigned as supply of the Elkton church, Elder Gordon brought a request that the committee unite with the church in securing the pastorate.

DAMONDS IN DEMAND.
E. W. EVANS & CO., commission merchants on Cary Street, are anxious for all the diamonds they can get to fill their regular fall orders. They are getting $1.50 to $1.75 per carat for all they can get when in good condition.

MISS MARY VERSER GRAVELY, of Danville, Maid of Honor from the Fifth District to the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans at Lynchburg.

MISS VIRGINIA ALICE HALE, Sponsor from Franklin county to the Grand Camp.

SOCIAL IN GLOUCESTER.

CHATHAM SOCIAL.

MISS KATHERINE STRONACH, Raleigh, N. C.

MISS ELIZABETH MAI GERHART, one of Tennessee's fairest daughters, who has graced South Boston with her beauty and charms this summer, has fallen a victim to the deadly arrow of Cupid, and will never return to sunny Tennessee again as Miss Gerhart, having given her heart and hand to Mr. Charles Thomas Yancey, of that place. The wedding has been announced to take place on the 14th of next month.

there in future. Colonel Miller's family has an important place in the business and social life of the town and were exceedingly popular. Their departure from Radford is deeply regretted.

Miss Melita Dillon is visiting friends in Tazewell.

Rev. C. W. Wysox, of Washington, passed through Radford Sunday en route to his home near Newbern. He spent two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logree Wysox.

Mrs. Samuel Sutcliffe left Tuesday for New Haven, Conn., to visit her husband's sister and will sail a week later for England, where she will spend the fall and winter. She was accompanied by her son, George.

Mrs. L. M. Venable will move in about two weeks to Washington City in order to be with her son, Paymaster George Venable, U. S. N. Miss Gertrude Venable will remain in Radford for the winter in order to fill her position as music teacher at Wadsworth school. The family will be much missed in social circles.

"A little fire is quickly trodden out, which being suffered, rivers cannot quench." If your business shows a tendency to "drag behind," a little renewed vigor in advertising will set it right—but the thing must be done quickly, or "rivers of ink" cannot repair the damage. Tee-Dee Want Ads. are full of vigor.

Every day in the Tee-Dee Want Ad columns "the tide which leads on to fortune" for someone "is at its flood." It may be your turn today.

MISS ANNABELLE JENKINS POWELL, of Emporia, appointed sponsor from the Fourth District to the Grand Camp.

MISS POWELL is the second daughter of Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Powell and Mrs. W. M. Powell, who reside in Emporia.

She is a most charming and accomplished young lady, and is a great favorite throughout Southside Virginia.

Triggs captured the first prize, and Miss Bessie W. Hamilton the second. After the game refreshments were served. The salad was served in cucumber boats with nasturtiums making ornamental salts. Those present were: Messdames T. T. Fauterley, C. Clay Miller, Glasgow Armstrong, C. A. Henkel, Robert Blackford, C. C. Wheat, E. M. Lorraine, F. Allen, Harry Woodward, of Richmond; C. P. Stiers, Julia Wile, Heber Jer, Miss Helen Baxter, Mary West, Bessie Baker, Emma Hope, Mamie Grady, Rose Harrison, Eugene Bumgardner, Margaret Timberlake, Rose, H. Helen Hutchison, Emily Moore, Sarah Boykin, Mamie Allen, Kate Hutchison, Annie Woodward, Margaret Cochran, Lizzie Jones, Gladys Frazier, Edna Moore, Elizabeth Horner, Mabel Little, May Ranson, Daisy Yarbrough, and Eliza Wheat, of Staunton, and Margaret Childrey, of Richmond.

Fans, Cora K. Stanton and Mr. Melville V. Dix, both of Albemarle county, came here Wednesday evening and were united in marriage at the Palmer House by the Rev. W. N. Scott.

The Home Mission Committee of the Lexington Presbyterian held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. here this week. Dr. Huffman, having resigned as supply of the Elkton church, Elder Gordon brought a request that the committee unite with the church in securing the pastorate.

DAMONDS IN DEMAND.
E. W. EVANS & CO., commission merchants on Cary Street, are anxious for all the diamonds they can get to fill their regular fall orders. They are getting $1.50 to $1.75 per carat for all they can get when in good condition.

MISS MARY VERSER GRAVELY, of Danville, Maid of Honor from the Fifth District to the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans at Lynchburg.

MISS VIRGINIA ALICE HALE, Sponsor from Franklin county to the Grand Camp.

SOCIAL IN GLOUCESTER.

CHATHAM SOCIAL.

MISS KATHERINE STRONACH, Raleigh, N. C.

MISS ELIZABETH MAI GERHART, one of Tennessee's fairest daughters, who has graced South Boston with her beauty and charms this summer, has fallen a victim to the deadly arrow of Cupid, and will never return to sunny Tennessee again as Miss Gerhart, having given her heart and hand to Mr. Charles Thomas Yancey, of that place. The wedding has been announced to take place on the 14th of next month.

there in future. Colonel Miller's family has an important place in the business and social life of the town and were exceedingly popular. Their departure from Radford is deeply regretted.

Miss Melita Dillon is visiting friends in Tazewell.

Rev. C. W. Wysox, of Washington, passed through Radford Sunday en route to his home near Newbern. He spent two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logree Wysox.

Mrs. Samuel Sutcliffe left Tuesday for New Haven, Conn., to visit her husband's sister and will sail a week later for England, where she will spend the fall and winter. She was accompanied by her son, George.

Mrs. L. M. Venable will move in about two weeks to Washington City in order to be with her son, Paymaster George Venable, U. S. N. Miss Gertrude Venable will remain in Radford for the winter in order to fill her position as music teacher at Wadsworth school. The family will be much missed in social circles.

"A little fire is quickly trodden out, which being suffered, rivers cannot quench." If your business shows a tendency to "drag behind," a little renewed vigor in advertising will set it right—but the thing must be done quickly, or "rivers of ink" cannot repair the damage. Tee-Dee Want Ads. are full of vigor.

Every day in the Tee-Dee Want Ad columns "the tide which leads on to fortune" for someone "is at its flood." It may be your turn today.

MISS ANNABELLE JENKINS POWELL, of Emporia, appointed sponsor from the Fourth District to the Grand Camp.

MISS POWELL is the second daughter of Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Powell and Mrs. W. M. Powell, who reside in Emporia.

She is a most charming and accomplished young lady, and is a great favorite throughout Southside Virginia.

Triggs captured the first prize, and Miss Bessie W. Hamilton the second. After the game refreshments were served. The salad was served in cucumber boats with nasturtiums making ornamental salts. Those present were: Messdames T. T. Fauterley, C. Clay Miller, Glasgow Armstrong, C. A. Henkel, Robert Blackford, C. C. Wheat, E. M. Lorraine, F. Allen, Harry Woodward, of Richmond; C. P. Stiers, Julia Wile, Heber Jer, Miss Helen Baxter, Mary West, Bessie Baker, Emma Hope, Mamie Grady, Rose Harrison, Eugene Bumgardner, Margaret Timberlake, Rose, H. Helen Hutchison, Emily Moore, Sarah Boykin, Mamie Allen, Kate Hutchison, Annie Woodward, Margaret Cochran, Lizzie Jones, Gladys Frazier, Edna Moore, Elizabeth Horner, Mabel Little, May Ranson, Daisy Yarbrough, and Eliza Wheat, of Staunton, and Margaret Childrey, of Richmond.

Fans, Cora K. Stanton and Mr. Melville V. Dix, both of Albemarle county, came here Wednesday evening and were united in marriage at the Palmer House by the Rev. W. N. Scott.

The Home Mission Committee of the Lexington Presbyterian held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. here this week. Dr. Huffman, having resigned as supply of the Elkton church, Elder Gordon brought a request that the committee unite with the church in securing the pastorate.

DAMONDS IN DEMAND.
E. W. EVANS & CO., commission merchants on Cary Street, are anxious for all the diamonds they can get to fill their regular fall orders. They are getting $1.50 to $1.75 per carat for all they can get when in good condition.

MISS MARY VERSER GRAVELY, of Danville, Maid of Honor from the Fifth District to the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans at Lynchburg.

MISS VIRGINIA ALICE HALE, Sponsor from Franklin county to the Grand Camp.

SOCIAL IN GLOUCESTER.

CHATHAM SOCIAL.

MISS KATHERINE STRONACH, Raleigh, N. C.

MISS ELIZABETH MAI GERHART, one of Tennessee's fairest daughters, who has graced South Boston with her beauty and charms this summer, has fallen a victim to the deadly arrow of Cupid, and will never return to sunny Tennessee again as Miss Gerhart, having given her heart and hand to Mr. Charles Thomas Yancey, of that place. The wedding has been announced to take place on the 14th of next month.

there in future. Colonel Miller's family has an important place in the business and social life of the town and were exceedingly popular. Their departure from Radford is deeply regretted.

Miss Melita Dillon is visiting friends in Tazewell.

Rev. C. W. Wysox, of Washington, passed through Radford Sunday en route to his home near Newbern. He spent two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logree Wysox.

Mrs. Samuel Sutcliffe left Tuesday for New Haven, Conn., to visit her husband's sister and will sail a week later for England, where she will spend the fall and winter. She was accompanied by her son, George.

Mrs. L. M. Venable will move in about two weeks to Washington City in order to be with her son, Paymaster George Venable, U. S. N. Miss Gertrude Venable will remain in Radford for the winter in order to fill her position as music teacher at Wadsworth school. The family will be much missed in social circles.

"A little fire is quickly trodden out, which being suffered, rivers cannot quench." If your business shows a tendency to "drag behind," a little renewed vigor in advertising will set it right—but the thing must be done quickly, or "rivers of ink" cannot repair the damage. Tee-Dee Want Ads. are full of vigor.

Every day in the Tee-Dee Want Ad columns "the tide which leads on to fortune" for someone "is at its flood." It may be your turn today.

MISS ANNABELLE JENKINS POWELL, of Emporia, appointed sponsor from the Fourth District to the Grand Camp.

MISS POWELL is the second daughter of Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Powell and Mrs. W. M. Powell, who reside in Emporia.

She is a most charming and accomplished young lady, and is a great favorite throughout Southside Virginia.

Triggs captured the first prize, and Miss Bessie W. Hamilton the second. After the game refreshments were served. The salad was served in cucumber boats with nasturtiums making ornamental salts. Those present were: Messdames T. T. Fauterley, C. Clay Miller, Glasgow Armstrong, C. A. Henkel, Robert Blackford, C. C. Wheat, E. M. Lorraine, F. Allen, Harry Woodward, of Richmond; C. P. Stiers, Julia Wile, Heber Jer, Miss Helen Baxter, Mary West, Bessie Baker, Emma Hope, Mamie Grady, Rose Harrison, Eugene Bumgardner, Margaret Timberlake, Rose, H. Helen Hutchison, Emily Moore, Sarah Boykin, Mamie Allen, Kate Hutchison, Annie Woodward, Margaret Cochran, Lizzie Jones, Gladys Frazier, Edna Moore, Elizabeth Horner, Mabel Little, May Ranson, Daisy Yarbrough, and Eliza Wheat, of Staunton, and Margaret Childrey, of Richmond.

Fans, Cora K. Stanton and Mr. Melville V. Dix, both of Albemarle county, came here Wednesday evening and were united in marriage at the Palmer House by the Rev. W. N. Scott.

The Home Mission Committee of the Lexington Presbyterian held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. here this week. Dr. Huffman, having resigned as supply of the Elkton church, Elder Gordon brought a request that the committee unite with the church in securing the pastorate.

DAMONDS IN DEMAND.
E. W. EVANS & CO., commission merchants on Cary Street, are anxious for all the diamonds they can get to fill their regular fall orders. They are getting $1.50 to $1.75 per carat for all they can get when in good condition.

MISS MARY VERSER GRAVELY, of Danville, Maid of Honor from the Fifth District to the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans at Lynchburg.

MISS VIRGINIA ALICE HALE, Sponsor from Franklin county to the Grand Camp.

SOCIAL IN GLOUCESTER.

CHATHAM SOCIAL.

MISS KATHERINE STRONACH, Raleigh, N. C.

MISS ELIZABETH MAI GERHART, one of Tennessee's fairest daughters, who has graced South Boston with her beauty and charms this summer, has fallen a victim to the deadly arrow of Cupid, and will never return to sunny Tennessee again as Miss Gerhart, having given her heart and hand to Mr. Charles Thomas Yancey, of that place. The wedding has been announced to take place on the 14th of next month.

there in future. Colonel Miller's family has an important place in the business and social life of the town and were exceedingly popular. Their departure from Radford is deeply regretted.

Miss Melita Dillon is visiting friends in Tazewell.

Rev. C. W. Wysox, of Washington, passed through Radford Sunday en route to his home near Newbern. He spent two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logree Wysox.

Mrs. Samuel Sutcliffe left Tuesday for New Haven, Conn., to visit her husband's sister and will sail a week later for England, where she will spend the fall and winter. She was accompanied by her son, George.

Mrs. L. M. Venable will move in about two weeks to Washington City in order to be with her son, Paymaster George Venable, U. S. N. Miss Gertrude Venable will remain in Radford for the winter in order to fill her position as music teacher at Wadsworth school. The family will be much missed in social circles.

"A little fire is quickly trodden out, which being suffered, rivers cannot quench." If your business shows a tendency to "drag behind," a little renewed vigor in advertising will set it right—but the thing must be done quickly, or "rivers of ink" cannot repair the damage. Tee-Dee Want Ads. are full of vigor.

Every day in the Tee-Dee Want Ad columns "the tide which leads on to fortune" for someone "is at its flood." It may be your turn today.

MISS ANNABELLE JENKINS POWELL, of Emporia, appointed sponsor from the Fourth District to the Grand Camp.

MISS POWELL is the second daughter of Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Powell and Mrs. W. M. Powell, who reside in Emporia.

She is a most charming and accomplished young lady, and is a great favorite throughout Southside Virginia.

Triggs captured the first prize, and Miss Bessie W. Hamilton the second. After the game refreshments were served. The salad was served in cucumber boats with nasturtiums making ornamental salts. Those present were: Messdames T. T. Fauterley, C. Clay Miller, Glasgow Armstrong, C. A. Henkel, Robert Blackford, C. C. Wheat, E. M. Lorraine, F. Allen, Harry Woodward, of Richmond; C. P. Stiers, Julia Wile, Heber Jer, Miss Helen Baxter, Mary West, Bessie Baker, Emma Hope, Mamie Grady, Rose Harrison, Eugene Bumgardner, Margaret Timberlake, Rose, H. Helen Hutchison, Emily Moore, Sarah Boykin, Mamie Allen, Kate Hutchison, Annie Woodward, Margaret Cochran, Lizzie Jones, Gladys Frazier, Edna Moore, Elizabeth Horner, Mabel Little, May Ranson, Daisy Yarbrough, and Eliza Wheat, of Staunton, and Margaret Childrey, of Richmond.

Fans, Cora K. Stanton and Mr. Melville V. Dix, both of Albemarle county, came here Wednesday evening and were united in marriage at the Palmer House by the Rev. W. N. Scott.

The Home Mission Committee of the Lexington Presbyterian held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. here this week. Dr. Huffman, having resigned as supply of the Elkton church, Elder Gordon brought a request that the committee unite with the church in securing the pastorate.

DAMONDS IN DEMAND.
E. W. EVANS & CO., commission merchants on Cary Street, are anxious for all the diamonds they can get to fill their regular fall orders. They are getting $1.50 to $1.75 per carat for all they can get when in good condition.

MISS MARY VERSER GRAVELY, of Danville, Maid of Honor from the Fifth District to the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans at Lynchburg.

MISS VIRGINIA ALICE HALE, Sponsor from Franklin county to the Grand Camp.

SOCIAL IN GLOUCESTER.

CHATHAM SOCIAL.

MISS KATHERINE STRONACH, Raleigh, N. C.

MISS ELIZABETH MAI GERHART, one of Tennessee's fairest daughters, who has graced South Boston with her beauty and charms this summer, has fallen a victim to the deadly arrow of Cupid, and will never return to sunny Tennessee again as Miss Gerhart, having given her heart and hand to Mr. Charles Thomas Yancey, of that place. The wedding has been announced to take place on the 14th of next month.

there in future. Colonel Miller's family has an important place in the business and social life of the town and were exceedingly popular. Their departure from Radford is deeply regretted.

Miss Melita Dillon is visiting friends in Tazewell.

Rev. C. W. Wysox, of Washington, passed through Radford Sunday en route to his home near Newbern. He spent two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logree Wysox.

Mrs. Samuel Sutcliffe left Tuesday for New Haven, Conn., to visit her husband's sister and will sail a week later for England, where she will spend the fall and winter. She was accompanied by her son, George.

Mrs. L. M. Venable will move in about two weeks to Washington City in order to be with her son, Paymaster George Venable, U. S. N. Miss Gertrude Venable will remain in Radford for the winter in order to fill her position as music teacher at Wadsworth school. The family will be much missed in social circles.

"A little fire is quickly trodden out, which being suffered, rivers cannot quench." If your business shows a tendency to "drag behind," a little renewed vigor in advertising will set it right—but the thing must be done quickly, or "rivers of ink" cannot repair the damage. Tee-Dee Want Ads. are full of vigor.

Every day in the Tee-Dee Want Ad columns "the tide which leads on to fortune" for someone "is at its flood." It may be your turn today.

MISS ANNABELLE JENKINS POWELL, of Emporia, appointed sponsor from the Fourth District to the Grand Camp.

MISS POWELL is the second daughter of Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Powell and Mrs. W. M. Powell, who reside in Emporia.

She is a most charming and accomplished young lady, and is a great favorite throughout Southside Virginia.

Triggs captured the first prize, and Miss Bessie W. Hamilton the second. After the game refreshments were served. The salad was served in cucumber boats with nasturtiums making ornamental salts. Those present were: Messdames T. T. Fauterley, C. Clay Miller, Glasgow Armstrong, C. A. Henkel, Robert Blackford, C. C. Wheat, E. M. Lorraine, F. Allen, Harry Woodward, of Richmond; C. P. Stiers, Julia Wile, Heber Jer, Miss Helen Baxter, Mary West, Bessie Baker, Emma Hope, Mamie Grady, Rose Harrison, Eugene Bumgardner, Margaret